WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—That the most promising undeveloped oil territory in Oklahoma is that between Muskogee and Taft, is the opinion of Democratic National Committeeman Josh Gablestree of Tulsa, who arrived in Washington last Sunday to attend the meeting of the Democratic national committee.

Gablestree is a pioneer oil operator and brought in the famous Glen pool in Oklahoma some years ago.

"The Boynton oil field is one of the best yet discovered in Oklahoma,"

Mr. Galbreath is authority for the statement that there is a reason for the great demand for Cushing iron.

"I look for another 10-cent increase in Oklahoma crude within the next few weeks," said Mr. Garbrecht today.

Nobles of Akdar Temple

Having come to my notice that a number of candidates regret that we did not hold a ceremonial session in Tulsa this fall, and those who have expressed a desire to become nobles of Akdar temple before the year expires—therefore to accommodate these, as well as to give others the same opportunity that may desire—

I Hereby Proclaim that on Friday, December 10th, at 8 p. m., at the Masonic hall, 518 South Main street, we will hold a brief ceremonial session.

This will be a session in which the soft pedal will be applied. Boys, pitch it sweet and low. Tell that eligible friend of yours that by taking advantage of this short-cut across the desert he will avoid that long and dangerous route over the Hot Sands usually taken by pilgrims. We have in Tulsa alone over two hundred Masons who are eligible to the shrine. Now let each Noble go forth and corral one poor son of desert, that he may rest and refresh himself under the protecting Dome of our goodly temple during the holiday season, and be sheltered from winter's chilly blasts. An Oriental luncheon will be served "beneath our own vine and fig tree" at 518 South Main street, city.

Come and bring the Novice. He will enjoy Christmas better after being made a Shriner. This date being that of our annual election, officers to serve you during the ensuing year will be elected and installed immediately after the ceremonial.

Come and bring a Novice.

Yours in the Faith,
GEORGE H. JOHNSON,
Potentate
